Director's notes

Melodi Hawkeford, Director
The Valedictorian

The Valedictorian is very short and sweet. Well, as sweet as things can be in the men's washroom.

Laughter abounds as Christine seeks Dave's help in this Restroom Comedy. So hold your nose, bring your dime and get ready to enjoy The Valedictorian!

- Melodi Hawkeford

Kim Ireton, Director

This is a Play, Never Swim Alone

I love Daniel MacIvor's plays. They are brilliant and challenging and real and mysterious and have been described as "on the cutting edge of the Canadian avant-garde."

However, these plays are not "easy." MacIvor's characters do not sit down together at the conventional kitchen table; rather, their "real world" is one of complete theatricality.

Therefore, to pull them off, I knew I needed some pretty darn fine actors! And, as you will see tonight, I believe I found them. So hats off to two wonderful and extremely hard working casts, a huge bouquet to Patrick, and thanks to you, the audience.

MacIvor likes to remind people that we're in the theatre. Together. So I truly hope you enjoy our foray into his "unconventional" world, as you become part of these plays tonight. Thank you.
- Kimberly Ireton

There will be a quick, 10-minute intermission after The Valedictorian so crew can "strike the stage" (the set will be taken down).

There will be a second, 20-minute intermission between This is a Play and Never Swim Alone.

Snacks are available at the concession at the back of the theatre.
A cash bar is also available.

Does this look like fun?

Why not get involved?

RLT has two opportunities to participate in one-act plays: once in the fall, and once in the spring.

There are many volunteer possibilities involved with a one-act play. You may want to write your own. You may want to direct.

You may want to be part of a production crew. Or you may want to act in one of the plays.

If you are interested in acting, directing or working as part of the production crew for a one-act play this spring, please contact Regina Little Theatre at rlt@sasktel.net, or phone 352-5535. For more information, visit www.reginallittletheatre.com.
