Quick Facts

- Established in 1926, RLT is the oldest all-volunteer community theatre company in Canada.
- The upcoming 2019-2020 season will be RLT's 94th.
- RLT produces five main stage productions and two sets of one-act cabarets each season. Main stage productions are presented Wednesday through Saturday nights, sometimes with an additional Saturday matinee. The one-act cabarets, which provide experience to aspiring actors and directors, are held on Friday and Saturday evenings.
- Attendance at main stage and one-act performances totals over 5,000 people per season.
- RLT strives to provide a high standard of entertainment at affordable prices. Our 2019-2020 ticket price is $23 for main stage shows, with discounts for season ticket holders, seniors and students. Admission to one-act cabarets is $15.
- All shows are held at the Regina Performing Arts Centre (RPAC), 1077 Angus Street.
- RLT is RPAC's primary tenant, renting rehearsal, wardrobe, props, workshop, and office space year round. Other theatrical groups are welcome to access our resources.
